Totus Tuus Summer Camp

It was quite the week here at St. Mary's as we had our summer camp Totus Tuus. It is always enriching to have young people from our diocese give their summer as missionaries for bringing the Gospel to our young people. Having had a chance to sit down with the 4 missionaries on Sunday over lunch and hearing their particular "call", it is hard to say that God is being silent. He is speaking which begs the question, "Are we listening?". Many thanks to Samantha for organizing this camp and for all the many hands that assisted in making this week successful and enjoyable for our young people. Next week, Sam will give you her reflections on the week.

A Journeyman's Beard

In these summer months, it is probably best to keep it a bit light with the blogs. With that, I will talk about beards!

First, my beard has come a long way! It has its ups and downs, its curls and straights, its good days and bad days. But, I really like it! No birds have wanted to start a nest in it, so that's always positive.

Second, I learned the hard way that tall creamy cakes can be a hazard for a long beard. Cream rinse is good. Sugar cream on a cake is bad.

Third, did you know that the patron saint of beards is a bearded woman? Neither did I until I started doing some research. And her feast day is this weekend, July 20th! Don't believe me? Here is the link.

Finally, The team that was sent to us for Totus Tuus was Team St. Philip Neri. He had a nice beard but he shaved half of it off and went to a fancy dinner party. You can read all about it here.

Away from the Parish

Many of you have asked if I will be getting some downtime and vacation over the summer months. The answer is yes! This coming week I will be away with my seminary classmates, now brother priests, for some time away at a cottage. It will be a quiet week to rest up. If you see me running away after the 11am Mass... its not you, its me! You will be in my prayers for the week, as always, please pray for us.

Fr Michael Simoes

EMAIL SCAM ALERT

In recent weeks there has been a sharp increase in the amount of fake/scam emails being received by parishioners throughout the archdiocese. These emails - usually sent from Gmail accounts operated by scammers - appear to be from a priest and often request the purchase of gift cards or electronic payments. Please exercise caution should you receive an email like this and contact the parish via telephone to validate its authenticity.

SHARELIFE

Thus far we have raised $47,099.65 (44%) toward our goal of $108,000

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope or at sharelife.org/donate.
