PASTOR'S BLOG

It was a good week to return to parish ministry after 10 days of pilgrimage ministry. Always a blessing to celebrate the feast of All Saints (especially after getting to make a few more heavenly friends on pilgrimage) and then to commemorate the souls in purgatory. This has been my longest stay at a parish in my 9 years of being a priest and seeing the people who came for Mass and knowing the family situations of grief and loss made the day even more meaningful and prayerful. Throughout the month of November we continue to remember the faithful departed in our book of remembrance at every Mass.

Advent Retreat: "Lord, Teach us to Pray"

It was during the lockdowns and we were not permitted to offer Mass publicly for the faithful, but were allowed to have 10 people in the church at a time. So, we had a time of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. I remember a lady who was new to the parish community and was joining us for this time of prayer (She moved out of the area a couple of years ago). She was faithful in sitting before the Blessed Sacrament. One day, after Benediction, and while I was putting the sacred objects away, she approached me and asked, "What am I supposed to do in prayer?" I paused, looked at her intently and asked, "what do you mean?" She replied, "I sit here but I don't know how to pray?" I was a bit shocked and said, "Well, you are coming here and He looks at you in love and you look at Him in love, and that is a great start."

How many of us feel that we don't really know how to pray? I mean, we know prayers like the Our Father (the response given by Jesus to the disciples when asked to teach them to pray), the Hail Mary and possibly the Glory Be, but not really KNOW how to pray. For myself, I continually grew in my understanding of prayer throughout my life but it was not until a 30 day silent Ignatian retreat that I really learned how to pray.

While on pilgrimage, we had the blessing of visiting Alba de Tormes and then make our way to Avila. Here we got to meet anew the Carmelite saints, St. Theresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross. Reading a little into St. Theresa's life prior to the pilgrimage and then re-reading a little biography of hers while in the place she lived and walked and was buried was eye opening. This great saint for many years struggled in prayer. From a wound in her childhood, she always thought that everything she did was wrong and thought she had to earn the Father's love. When she was sick with malaria and then recovering, her prayer time was reduced or she stopped praying all together. Through her life and as she progressed in the spiritual life through mental prayer, she was able to receive the love of Jesus and lived from that love with the new order of discalced Carmelites.

With our Advent Retreat, we are intentionally going "back to basics" to help the parish family encounter the love of God in their life. If we do not know how to pray or think we are doing it wrong, or get lost with all the materials that are out there, find ourselves distracted and how to deal with those distractions, how can we truly receive the love and life that Jesus wants us to receive as his disciples? In the embrace of prayer, we are protected from the evils of the world and guided by the love of God to our heavenly homeland. So, we invite you to join us for this day of reflection, prayer and fellowship. You can register online at our parish website or you can pick up a hardcopy of the registration form from Adriene or Sam at the parish office.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR NEIGHBOURS IN NEED

Once again, our parish Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SSVP) will be providing Christmas assistance to families-in-need within our community. While we are still 2 months away from Christmas, we need to plan now. Awareness of maintaining each person's dignity is always our priority. Food insecurities and the increases in food costs continue to be foremost in the minds of many of our families.

We are very grateful for the support we receive from parishioners through our poor boxes on a regular basis. Once a year we ask for your support through this special collection, to enable us to provide Christmas assistance as well as support throughout the year. You can help us by making a donation of cash or cheque any time in the next month, using the special (yellow) envelope in your envelope box on Nov. 11/12, or using any envelope marked SSVP. In addition, there are online donation options. If you are interested in this, please call our line and leave a message (647-628-2058).
