PASTOR'S BLOG

In homilies and sermons from ancient times when we had amazing orators like St. Augustine and St. John Chrysostom, their sermons at Easter would begin with a rousing chant, a call and response of "Christ is Risen!" And the people would reply "He is truly Risen!" I won't be bringing that practice back during my homily this weekend, but if I greet you at the door with it, I will know who has read the blog!

This weekend as you celebrate this great feast with family and friends, make sure you do take time for yourself to really meditate and reflect on what this means - Jesus Christ, the Son of God rose from the dead! It changes everything. Our baptism is a sharing in this victory of love and life over sin and death. And at our celebrations of Mass, we renew our commitments, our profession of faith and are sprinkled with holy water to remind us of this victory.

If you are looking for some resources over the next week during the octave of Easter, I invite you to take a look at the programming on FORMED. On the website, you will find so many great movies and programs that can help us go deeper into the mysteries of our faith.

At this time, we also change over the parts of the Mass from the Mass for Advent and Lent to the Mass of the Angels. Here are the YouTube videos to listen to at home and practice:

Kyrie: <https://youtu.be/mBoEf3cqMRo>

Gloria: https://youtu.be/JM6gmf\_C7pU

Sanctus: <https://youtu.be/ehK1juwbtS0>

Agnus Dei: <https://youtu.be/jln3fAv8ZBU>

Finally, if you are attending daily Mass and stay for the Benediction before 10:30am, you will have noticed that we are using Marian Antiphons as our closing chants. For Eastertide, we switch to the Regina Caeli. Here it is for you to listen to and practice: <https://youtu.be/NsG0ECr4flw>

On behalf of the parish staff, Marilyn, Adriene, Samantha, Sergio, Paola, Deacon John, I wish you all a very happy and blessed Easter. May the joy of Easter, Christ risen from the dead, be with you and your families.

Fr Michael
