Pastor's Corner

When I returned from vacation at the beginning of January, I was informed by Sergio that the statue of our Blessed Mother in “Mary’s Garden” was vandalized. I will spare you the content of what was written with permanent marker on the statue. I will say that the act of sacrilege filled me with righteous anger. We reported the act of vandalism to the local police and to the Archdiocese. After many different chemicals, were were able to remove the graffiti.

In order to acknowledge the harm done to what we, as a parish family, holds sacred and to restore moral balance, on Saturday February 7th, the 1st Saturday of the Month, one of the intentions for the 9am Mass will be in reparation for the sacrilege committed.

Reparation is not merely punitive; it is relational, aiming to heal the rupture between offender, community, and the sacred itself. By choosing humility, restitution, and sustained accountability, the responsible party affirms respect for transcendent values and communal memory. These actions can transform violation into opportunity for reflection, teaching that reverence is maintained not only by prohibitions, but by the willingness to respond rightly when those prohibitions are broken, thereby fostering reconciliation, renewed trust, and deeper ethical responsibility overall collectively. Once I can get into Mary’s Garden (after the snow clears), I will bless the statue and the space again for its intended use, a place of prayer.

You are warmly invited to attend the Mass and offer your act of penance on Friday for the same intention.
