LPA's Blog - Corpus Christi Sunday 2024

Sound the alarms! (If you know, you know...) This is Adriene writing the blog this week. Prepare for my sentiments and reflections as I gush over the coming together of our parish family this past Sunday. We had an incredibly beautiful Corpus Christi Sunday. Similar to last year, our Sunday began with pouring rain but praise the good Lord, by the time it came for the procession, the weather was clear and we were able to proceed as planned.

I wanted to take this time to first give a huge, huge thank you to all of those involved in preparing for this celebration! From gathering rose petals, to donating groceries and offering financial support, to organizing the procession itself, to grilling the patties and sausages, to setting up for the BBQ, to the support that was given to Fr Michael for Mass and the procession, my heart was particularly moved at the many hands that were involved in making this event happen through the willingness and generosity of our parish family.

I witnessed members of our parish family step into the breach and help wherever they could even if it meant learning on the spot and trying something new for the first time. Though we as a parish staff are here to support the needs of the parish, this sense of leadership is meant to be shared with our parish family. Where together, as a family, we show up and learn with and from each other, inviting others into a deeper encounter with our Lord through these kinds of days. This coming together of the parish family is truly what makes these events a parish event.

It was also so special to see a few of our First Communicants join the procession alongside their families, throwing rose petals before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Thankfully the rain steered clear and we were able to have the BBQ outdoors following the procession. These opportunities for fellowship are pockets of time for life-sharing moments which truly are very life-giving for me.

Thank you again to everyone involved. Your time, willingness, and generosity has not gone unseen and thank you to those who participated! We look forward to having more of these life-sharing & life-giving events as a parish family. Please send us any photos you took from the procession.

Wedding Updates - We are three months away!

- We have one more session left in marriage prep. We loved diving deeper into understanding the sacrament and some of the realities that come with marriage.
- Adrian is suit shopping.
- I learned how expensive wedding cakes are & the different terminology associated with wedding cakes alone.
- I am creating and constructing my bridesmaids' bouquets & the groomsmen's boutonnieres out of ribbon roses for a personalized touch. (I dreamed of doing this since high school hehe)
- My mom picked out her dress! It is a beautiful traditional filipiana gown.

Have a great week!
Adriene

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul helps over 1,000 girls attend an 8-day camp at Marygrove Camp near Penetang each summer. Each applicant is screened by an SSVP member, and each camper's holiday is fully subsidized through the generous support of the annual Camp Collection held in the parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto. This collection will take place at St. Mary's on June 8/9. As we look ahead to the joys of the summer, let's share that joy with others in need. Please be as generous as you can.
