Update: Parish Ministry Fair/Coffee Sunday

My thanks to all who made the effort to come down to the hall this weekend for our coffee Sunday and parish ministry fair. I did not know what to expect but I was pleasantly surprised at the turnout. As we rebuild the parish family and its ministries over the coming year, this was a necessary first start. To those who signed up for a ministry, expect a call or email by the end of the month to follow up with you.

And credit where credit is due: this fair was driven and organized by Adriene and Sam. They did a lovely job and it was an experience to see them this past week with their creativity put together an engaging experience and atmosphere for all who made their way down. On behalf of the parish family, thank you!

The Social Ministries of St. Mary Star of the Sea

As a part of the rebuilding process, at the beginning of January, Adriene, Marilyn, Sam and I organized our first round table meeting with the parish social ministries, the Catholic Women's League, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Development and Peace, the Craft Ladies, the Legion of Mary and the Community Meal. It was an opportunity to meet with them and listen to their experiences over the past two years. Each ministry had to adapt its approach to stay engaged with its members and to be creative in engaging the broader community.

Throughout the coming year, you will get to hear from them as they engage the community with a membership drive. These ministries certainly help with building a sense of community and apostolate, so that people can know that they belong and through that, grow in their faith.

Update: Renovations

A few people have been asking about the rectory renovation. We are getting into the 7th/8th month of work. This past week we had a preliminary walkthrough of the office and rectory with the extensive work that has been done. It is quite the transformation. Maybe its because I have not resided in the space for such a long time, or because of the new aesthetic, it was hardly recognizable. With this walkthrough, it also signals substantial completion is close. Thanks be to God, I will get to move back into the rectory the week of February 20th. These last months have been tiring and I am relieved that I get to move back. With the events that are being planned and the parish life picking up steam after a two year hiatus, it could not have come at a better time.

Almost there! Your prayers are always most welcome for this intention!

Breaking News

So, last minute update to this blog: We have a new Archbishop. As of Saturday 11 February, the Holy Father as accepted the resignation of Cardinal Thomas Collins and appointed the auxiliary bishop of Montreal, Bishop Francis (Frank) Leo as Archbishop of Toronto. Please, do not confuse him with the real estate agent who goes by the same name. To help make that distinction, here is the brief message from the Communications department and a link to the Archbishop-designate's initial reaction and letter to the faithful of the Archdiocese:

Pope Francis has appointed Bishop Francis (Frank) Leo, currently Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Montreal, as the 14th Archbishop of Toronto. The archbishop-designate succeeds Cardinal Thomas Collins, who has served the archdiocese since 2007. The new archbishop will be installed at a ceremony at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica on a date to be confirmed in the coming days. During this time of transition in the archdiocese, we give thanks for Cardinal Collins and his service to the Church and welcome Archbishop-designate Leo, who will be joining the community very soon. Please continue to keep these shepherds close in prayer in the days ahead.
