REBUILDING OUR PARISH COMMUNITY - TOGETHER

As we begin a new pastoral season, we are preparing to resume several parish ministries and establish new opportunities for service. A vibrant parish community, however, cannot be built by the pastor or parish staff alone. It grows through the prayer, participation, generosity, and commitment of its parishioners. The future of our parish depends greatly upon your engagement. I need you, and our parish needs you—your time, your gifts, your experience, and your willingness to serve. Every person has something valuable to offer. No contribution is too small when it is given with love.

Christian service is more than volunteering. It is a response to Jesus, who tells us: “The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve” (Mark 10:45). Through serving others, we encounter Christ, deepen our faith, form friendships, and help make our parish a welcoming spiritual home.

There are many opportunities to become involved:

- Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and Ushers
- Altar servers, sacristans, and hospitality minister
- Baptismal preparation team
- First Holy Communion and Confirmation team
- Children’s Liturgy of the Word
- RCIA and adult faith formation
- Young-adult ministry
- Mothers group, Dads group
- Intercessory prayer-group members and leaders
- Bible-study facilitators
- Social events, refreshments, and community-building activities
- Livestreaming, sound-system, and social media
- Gardening, decorating, maintenance, and care for parish facilities
- Planning, and other advisory ministries

Please prayerfully ask yourself: Where is God inviting me to serve? What gift has He entrusted to me for the good of this community?

Some ministries require training, which the parish will provide. What matters most is not professional experience but a generous heart, a willingness to learn, and a desire to serve Christ and one another.

Let us not remain simply people who attend the same church. Let us become a true parish family—one that prays together, serves together, welcomes others, and shares the Gospel. With your participation, we can rebuild a vibrant, joyful, and missionary community where everyone feels welcomed, valued, and loved.

Please watch the bulletin for upcoming ministry information and registration opportunities. I personally invite every parishioner to consider joining at least one area of service.

Together, with God’s grace, we can renew our parish and make it a living sign of Christ’s presence in our community.
