PASTOR'S BLOG

While the Ascension of Our Lord took place 40 days after His resurrection (Ascension Thursday), the liturgical calendar in Canada moves the solemnity to the Sunday for the participation of the faithful because it is a pivotal moment in salvation history. The sixth article of our Creed reads: "He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father." Forty days after His Resurrection, Jesus returned to the Father in glory, taking our humanity with Him into heaven. As the Catechism teaches: "Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we... may live in the hope of one day being with Him forever" (CCC 666).

The last bit of the quote from the catechism, "the hope of one day being with Him forever" has a special meaning this Jubilee Year - A Jubilee of Hope. We, as pilgrims of hope, focus on the virtue by which we trust that God, who is all-powerful and faithful to His promises, will bring us to eternal life and give us the grace to get there. The Ascension assures us that Christ has not abandoned us. Rather, He intercedes for us at the Father's right hand and sends us the Holy Spirit to strengthen us.

This is why I wanted our parish mission to fit into this liturgical time - from Ascension Thursday to Pentecost - during this Jubilee Year. Our hope can weaken, especially in times of doubt or sin. With daily confession available, with Mass being celebrated with inspired homilies and teachings, and praying the original novena to the Holy Spirit - we renew our confidence in God's mercy and our total dependence on Him. We receive Him as pilgrims of hope in the Eucharist, the food that nourishes the soul. And as pilgrims of hope, we wait and pray like the first disciples with Our Lady for the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, Paraclete, Consoler - the power from on high - to renew our hearts with hope.

For those unable to make it due to health and unforeseen circumstances, offer up your situation for your fellow parishioners who are attending the mission - that God will do something new in their hearts. Pope Benedict XVI explains in Spe Salvi that "offering it up" means uniting our personal suffering with Christ's redemptive suffering, allowing it to become a source of hope and spiritual transformation. Through this union, suffering is no longer meaningless but participates in the saving love of Christ, helping both ourselves and others on the path to eternal life.

For those who have hesitated about coming to the mission, maybe take the step forward and come and be renewed through the Sacraments. And if you have been coming to the mission, keep it up! It has been great to see so many of you join us in prayer.
