PASTOR'S BLOG

As we come to the conclusion of our Lenten observances and near our Easter celebration, I would like to use this opportunity to wish you all a very happy Easter. As you take this time with family and friends in celebration, don't forget the reason why we celebrate: Jesus Christ is Risen from the dead! And so please take time with Him...at the empty tomb with St. Mary Magdalene, in the upper room with the Apostles, along the road to Emmaus with the disciples and by the Sea of Galilee with St. Peter. Also, spend time with our Blessed Mother Mary in her room, where Jesus would have first appeared to her, risen from the dead.

Last year in this annual "Easter Sunday" blog, I made mention of St. Augustine's and St. John Chrysostom's famous Easter sermons. Here is one that you can reflect upon.

Also, it takes many hands to make these celebrations beautiful and reverent giving glory to God. My thanks to the staff, Marilyn, Adriene, Sam, Sergio, the lectors, altar servers, musicians, and ushers. Maybe when you see them, offer them a thank you. They certainly love the Lord and they desire to serve him and in turn serve you.

Have a very blessed octave of Easter...and don't forget, the Divine Mercy chaplet Novena is being prayed online on Zoom. We look forward to seeing you and praying with you.

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATES

TOTUS TUUS IS BACK!

The youth of the parish are invited to join us for Totus Tuus Summer Camp this summer the week of July 15th! For those of you who may not know. Totus Tuus is an Archdiocesan program whereby seminarians and young adults travel to different parishes, spreading the Good News of our Lord through catechesis, Mass, Confession, songs and games! The Day camp is for children entering grades 1-6 and runs Monday to Friday and the Evening Program is for youth entering grades 7-12 and runs Sunday to Thursday. The cost is only $125/child for the whole week for the day program and $25/child for the whole week for the evening program. Registration is now open and you can find it online on the Parish Website or at the exits of the Church. For more information, please contact Sam, the Youth Minister!
