Parish Ministry Fair

Last week I mentioned both in this blog and at the pulpit announcements that on the weekend of 4/5 February, we will be hosting a parish ministry fair following all Masses. During the month of January, Samantha, Adriene, Marilyn and I invite you to pray and ask the Lord where he would like you to serve in this parish. To help you with that discernment, here are a list ministries that you will be able to sign up for. The ministries are divided into four categories: Liturgical, Administrative, Pastoral, Sacramental.

Remember, God can never be outdone in generosity. So, if we are generous with our time, talent and treasure to Him and in service of Him, then we can be assured that God will bless that time, talent and treasure, and give to us in abundance in return.

Pastoral

- Edge (Grade 6-8)
- LifeTeen (High School)
- Family Life
- Hospitality

Sacramental

- Baptism Preparation
- First Reconciliation/Communion Preparation
- Confirmation Preparation
- Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
- Rite of Christian Initiation of Children

Liturgical Ministries

- Ministry of Care - Communion to the Homebound/Nursing Homes
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion/Sacristan
- Lectors
- Ushers
- Choir
- Children's Liturgy

Administrative

- Volunteer Screening

Beep, beep, beep FIRE

For those who were present at the 11am Mass on the Feast of the Epiphany, you are very well aware of the Fire Alarm that went off during Mass. There was no fire, the incense triggered the smoke detector by the parking lot stairwell. There was no damage (except to my ego), everyone evacuated safely and calmly with the issue resolved in half an hour. I thank everyone present for your calm demeanour and to those who assisted in prayer and support. As I mentioned when we restarted the Mass to the remnant of faithful, it was ironic that the pure Frankincense that was being used as the incense set off the fire alarm on the Feast of the Epiphany. The Magi brought the King of the Jews gifts of Gold, Myrrh and Frankincense...apparently there was no smoke detector in the house they were staying.

This incident also allows me to check a box that we had a fire drill in a live situation and we all passed! You might have noticed around the church the framework for the new fire alarm devices. The old ones are in need of replacement, so this renovation is timely. Thank you for your support.

Away for the Week

Finally, I will be away next week on a much needed vacation (the fire alarm was the last straw). With that, the Tuesday evening Mass on 17 January 2023 and 24 January 2023 are cancelled. There will be two visiting priests for Wednesday through Sunday. The normal adoration will be cancelled but we will continue with the devotions following Mass.

I will see y'all at the end of the month! I hope my luggage makes it back with me!
