First and foremost, many thanks to Adriene and Sam for their updates and lovely reflections over the last couple of weeks. The parish continues to sail along and their hard work helps keep it going in the right direction! As for myself, getting ready for Holy Week is always more intensive time of prayer, reflection and administrative duties. It is all for the glory of God and in service to you, so hopefully you can encounter Jesus anew in your life and grow in that precious and personal relationship.

Holy Week and Paschal Triduum

Holy Week is the week which precedes the great Feast of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday: It includes the last days of Lent. During Holy Week, the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation accomplished by Christ in the last days of his life on earth, beginning with his entrance into Jerusalem. The climax of this week is the Sacred Paschal Triduum. Through his Paschal Mystery, the Lord Jesus redeemed the human race and gave perfect glory to the Father. By dying, Christ destroyed our death; by rising, he restored our life. For this reason, the Easter Triduum, when we celebrate the suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord, is the high point of the Liturgical Year. The Easter Solemnity is to the year, what Sunday is to the week.

When I was growing up, I always looked forward to Holy Week and the Sacred Paschal Triduum. It was a time when the rituals of the week communicated the great love of God in His passion, death and resurrection. When I reached high school, my parish priest invited me to take on more of a leadership role in the Masses as a Master of Ceremonies during the Triduum. In this role, I studied and learned the ritual and how each movement, each prayer is important. So, if you are ever wondering why I spend a lot of time and effort into these Masses and services, it's because I care deeply that they are done well so that we can give glory to God and you can encounter Jesus anew and grow in your relationship with Him.

Blessing of the Easter Basket

One of the ideas that I had this year, learning from my brother priests, is to have the blessing of the Easter Basket on Holy Saturday from 9:30-9:40am. The timeline is strict because it is a full day for me and I would assume for you as you begin your preparations for Easter gatherings with family. If you are unfamiliar with the Easter Basket, here are two resources to learn more about it: Ascetic Life of Motherhood or Catechesis of Easter Baskets

Wishing you all a very blessed Holy Week and we look forward to seeing you over these high holy days.

Fr. Michael

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATES

TOTUS TUUS

The youth of the parish are invited to join us for Totus Tuus Summer Camp this summer the week of July 15th! For those of you who may not know, Totus Tuus is an Archdiocesan program whereby seminarians and young adults travel to different parishes, spreading the Good News of our Lord through catechesis, Mass, Confession, songs and games! The Day camp is for children entering grades 1-6 and runs Monday to Friday and the Evening Program is for youth entering grades 7-12 and runs Sunday to Thursday. The cost is only $125/child for the whole week for the day program and $25/child for the whole week for the evening program. Registration is now open and you can find it online on the Parish Website or at the exits of the Church. For more information, please contact Sam, the Youth Minister!

SHARELIFE SUNDAY - THIS WEEKEND

Today is Palm Sunday, a time in our Lenten journey when we are reminded of the importance of welcoming Jesus in our hearts. In the spirit of His teachings and example, let us extend our hands to those who need our help the most.

Thus far we have raised $11,284 toward our goal of $108,000

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope (available at all the exits of the Church), or at sharelife.org/donate.

Thank you for living the Gospel by opening your hearts and sharing your blessings.
