PASTOR'S BLOG

August 13, 2023

In conversation, one of the older priests of the diocese said quite frequently, "In the day...". I will take a page from that and say, in the day, summer was always a time of anticipation for the blockbuster movies. I remember moves like Independence Day, Gladiator, and the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise. Over time, the summer blockbuster lost its excitement and with streaming movies and technology vastly improving the audio/visual department, it might be better to wait to watch in the comfort of your home. Or maybe I am just getting older and it has lost its appeal. However, over the last few months, I have gone to the theatre a few more times than I have in a very long time. For one movie, I had to drive to a drive theatre in Burlington and the other was so popular that I had to sit in the front row.

The first movie I went and saw was Nefarious. It did not make the big Cineplex theatres in Canada so I went to a Cine Starz in Burlington. It was an old school movie theatre with red chairs that lean way back, sticky floors and hot dogs in the warmer that I would probably stay away from. But going to this theatre for this movie actually added to the movie experience. The movie is advertised as a horror movie, but it is far from that. It would be more a psychological thriller that literally has no action scene. It is pure dialogue and it is so well done. When it comes out on Blu Ray/DVD, I am certainly going to buy it and have a movie night at the parish. Here is a short synopsis on the movie courtesy of IMDB:

"On the day of his scheduled execution, a convicted serial killer gets a psychiatric evaluation during which he claims he is a demon, and further claims that before their time is over, the psychiatrist will commit three murders of his own."

The second movie I went to see is getting a lot more press, sparking great conversation, and opening the eyes of many: Sound of Freedom. When I went to see the movie, I was told book in advance. Should have listened. I went and it was nearly sold out and I had to sit in the front row and crank my neck. But, it was worth it. There are many things that I could say about the movie, about the message and about the entertainment industry and society in general. Rather, I would invite you to go see the movie for yourself and make your judgement. Remember, it is based on a true story. If you are hesitant about the topic, one of the best aspects of the movie (second only to the message) is that they take a very sensitive and emotional topic and without showing anything graphic bring that sensitive and emotional reality to life. If you don't know much about the movie or hearing about it for the first time because you keep yourself unplugged, here is a short synopsis on the movie courtesy of IMDB:

"The incredible true story of a former government agent turned vigilante who embarks on a dangerous mission to rescue hundreds of children from sex traffickers."

As I conclude, I will pre-empt an answer to a question I might get: No, I am not going to watch the Barbie movie. LOL

CELEBRATION OF THE SOLEMNITY OF ST. MICHAEL & CONFERRAL OF THE PALLIUM UPON THE MOST REV. FRANCIS LEO

St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica - Friday, September 29, 2023 – 5:30 p.m.

The Archdiocese of Toronto celebrates the feast day of our archdiocesan patron, St. Michael, on Friday, September 29, 2023. All are welcome to join in a special celebration on that day at 5:30 p.m. at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica (65 Bond St.). CANADIAN MISSIONS COLLECTION

August 12/13, 2023 (Envelopes available at Church Exits)

The Canadian Missions Collection supports remote dioceses in NWT and in northern Alberta as well as Catholic Missions in Canada. CMIC fosters and extends blessings of the Catholic faith by supporting many missions in many regions of our country where the population is too small, or the economic situation of the community is too fragile for the people themselves to support their local Church and its ministry.
