Youth Minister's Blog: The Gaze of Jesus

Last week you heard from Adriene and all the beautiful things going on in her ministry and life from First Communion prep to her wedding prep (YAY)! With my turn on the blog I wanted to share a reflection from the Lenten devotional I have been following this year. For context, this is a daily devotion for women from the Catholic community Blessed is She and it follows the same schedule weekly -

Sunday: The Way of the Cross

Monday: Lectio divina on a verse from Isaiah 53 prophecy

Tuesday: Personal Story from one of the authors

Wednesday: Visio divina based on sacred mosaic art

Thursday: Personal story from one of the authors

Friday: Lectio divina on the fulfillment of the Isaiah 53 prophecy

Saturday: Reconciliation

Following this devotion has done wonders for my prayer life because it allowed me to pray in so many different ways, but there was one reflection in particular I wanted to share going into the 5th Sunday of Lent. It comes from the Sunday narration with Jesus on the Way of the Cross. If you are reading this at home or sitting in the parish, no matter where you are, take a moment to put yourself in that setting of walking alongside Jesus to Calvary...

"Jesus glances towards His Mother. A look of loving endurance passes between them, one they have shared before. You long to reach out to both; what they can bear, you feel unable to stand. How can He stand it all so patiently? Then Jesus' gaze turns to you, the intensity of it blocking out the chaos around you. You think to yourself 'I can't be like you; I am too sinful.' Your repentant heart reaches out to Him as you, in your shame, cast your eyes to the ground. Then you feel His Mother wrap her mantle around your shoulders; she prays silently for you. Under her care, your eyes once again lift to His compassionate face and His waiting gaze."

The compassionate gaze of Jesus. When I first read this I was in Adoration and when I looked up towards the monstrance I had to turn my eyes away from Jesus in the Eucharist similar to this narration. Inviting the Holy Spirit into my imagination I could vividly imagine gazing into the eyes of Jesus - the intense sacrificial love seen there was overwhelming. Jesus died on the Cross for all of us, each and every single one of us and in his eyes the entire time, sacrificial love.

As we head into the last week of Lent before Holy Week I want to encourage you, as you pray with your own Lenten devotions or readings but especially if you pray through the Stations of the Cross, don't just read the words and travel through the scene but reflect on the face - particularly the gaze of Jesus.

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATES

TOTUS TUUS

The youth of the parish are invited to join us for Totus Tuus Summer Camp this summer the week of July 15th! For those of you who may not know, Totus Tuus is an Archdiocesan program whereby seminarians and young adults travel to different parishes, spreading the Good News of our Lord through catechesis, Mass, Confession, songs and games! The Day camp is for children entering grades 1-6 and runs Monday to Friday and the Evening Program is for youth entering grades 7-12 and runs Sunday to Thursday. The cost is only $125/child for the whole week for the day program and $25/child for the whole week for the evening program. Registration is now open and you can find it online on the Parish Website or at the exits of the Church. For more information, please contact Sam, the Youth Minister!

SHARELIFE SUNDAY - THIS WEEKEND

Every day, young people in our community need a helping hand due to homelessness, trafficking, or violence. ShareLife agencies ensure the safety of youth fleeing violent homes and provide them a supportive place to stay. This is all made possible thanks to amazing people like you who choose to support ShareLife. We thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Our parish goal this year is $108,000.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope (available at all the exits of the Church), or online at sharelife.org/donate.

SSVP – FEBRUARY SUMMARY

During the month of February, our team members made 28 home visits, and distributed $3340 in grocery gift cards and bus tickets. We received $1510 in donations. We are grateful to all of our donors, and we remember you in our monthly prayers. In January, we welcomed a new member to our team - Kim. We now have 13 members!

Jesus teach us how to walk with You and be Your presence in the world.
