PASTOR'S BLOG

After last week's lengthy blog, I figured I would keep this one brief. The first item I would like to draw your attention to is the 2023 Financial Statement which is attached to this email. The letter accompanying the statement expresses our gratitude for the ongoing generosity of the St. Mary's family to the pastoral work and general upkeep of the parish building. Honestly, we cannot do it without your goodness and kindness. Thank you.

The second item I want to draw your attention to is an article I recently read about the coach of the Boston Celtics. You can find the article here. The reason why I am bringing this article to your attention is to see a faith filled person excelling in their field but remaining a man of faith, not letting it get to his head. I also liked the article because it is an example to the contrary of many people who prioritize extra-curricular sports, dance etc... over their faith. Nope, when we have prioritized our lives correctly, God, Others, Myself (in that order), then the pieces of life start to fall into their proper place. It is not perfect, by any means, but it keeps us grounded in God. Lastly, going for prayer walks (gotta love the speciality beads for the rosary) is a great witness and testament to the power of prayer and specifically devotion to Our Lady.

That's it for me this week... next week I will be away at the Steubenville Conference with young people from our parish who are joining many others from the Archdiocese. To echo Sam's words, thank you for your generosity in helping send our young people to the Conference through their fundraising efforts. Please keep them in your prayers!

As a result of being away for the weekend, no blog next week. However, the weekend after you get to hear from Samantha about her experience at the Conference and then the week after from my perspective.

For those who are "in and out" of Port Credit for the summer, hopefully we will have a chance to catch up throughout these summer months in the odd chance that our paths cross before and after Mass.

SSVP - OUR DAILY BREAD

The petition in the Lord's Prayer to give us our daily bread has several layers of meaning. The most obvious is to express our need for food. There is no point in asking for anything else if we do not have the food that will keep us alive, so we ask for food before we ask for anything else. This is a petition, to be rescued from hunger, and since hunger itself has many layers of meaning, the petition is a rich one. We hunger for food, but we also hunger for peace, we hunger for equality, we hunger for justice for all. To ask for our daily bread is to ask that our hungers be satisfied—all of them. Another layer of meaning is added on to the petition by requesting not food but bread. Bread is the most basic of foods, so that in asking for bread, we are asking that our most basic needs be provided. To ask for bread, then, can be understood as a request that all our basic needs be met—the needs for shelter, food, clothing, and health care. It is a petition for human dignity. As we pray the Lord's Prayer, let us remember our Neighbours in Need in Port Credit, and around the world, who struggle to have their basic needs met. And may we be grateful for the gifts God has given us so abundantly.
