Youth Ministers and Camp Coordinators Blog - Stella Maris and Summer Memories

Camp Coordinators POV

Taking on the role as Camp Coordinator for Stella Maris Summer Camp this year at St. Mary Star of the Sea was a great experience in hands-on administrative work and leadership. Over the course of a joyful and fast-paced week, we welcomed children from our parish and community into a space filled with faith, laughter, and memories. I had the privilege of overseeing the planning, coordination and daily operations of the camp. The second week of camp we had even more children filled with energy and excitement!

The camp was a true success. Each day was planned with engaging activities, games, crafts, songs, and faith-based lessons that helped our campers grow not only in friendship but in their understanding of God's love. Seeing the joy on their faces as they participated in everything from water games to Saint stories was a powerful reminder of the impact this kind of ministry can have. The Stella Maris Camp Counselors showed dedication in creating a faith-filled environment, so thank you to them! Many campers even shared that they can't wait to come back next year which is the best feedback we could hope for!

Stella Maris proved to be a guiding light for many of our campers during this summer. I look forward to seeing how Stella Maris Camp continues to grow in the years to come.

Many thanks,

Nadiya Lim (Camp Coordinator)

Youth Ministers POV

If you are reading this... we have survived summer camp!

Can you believe it's already been three years of running summer camp here at St. Mary's?

While the camp itself is just two weeks long in July, what most people don't realize is that the planning has been ongoing since November 2024. That's 8 months of planning, praying and prepping, so to see it all come to life again this year is honestly amazing! Especially since this was our first year running our own parish summer camp!

The days were long, but everything was worth it because we got to witness the beauty of campers making new friends, deepening their relationship with God and campers Rising and Shining (yes, daily Mass-goers, that's what you were hearing echoing from the parish hall!).

Summer camp doesn't happen on its own, it takes A LOT of help and we had some fantastic help! Nadiya, our fearless Camp Coordinator, poured her heart into every detail and schedule. Isabella, Samuel, and Xavier, our hired Camp Counselors, brought so much energy, creativity, and joy. Jacob, Kateri, Quinn, and Regan, our volunteers, were absolute rockstars and showed what leadership with faith looks like!

Fr. Michael deserves a special shoutout for giving up his day off each week of camp to make sure that Mass was celebrated daily for our campers...and of course for letting the kids soak him with ice buckets... more than once. And of course Sergio, our caretaker who made sure the environment was safe and clean every single day for our campers! And of course, to everyone who donated, thank you. Your generosity made camp possible. Whether you gave financially, dropped off snacks, prayed for us, or just checked in to see how we were holding up, please know that it meant so much to us!

As camp comes to a close for another year, I just want to express how special these camp weeks are to us and how we try to make it special for the campers. Stella Maris summer camp is a place where kids can be themselves, have some fun and grow in faith. With Our Lady Star of the Sea guiding us, we moved through these weeks of camp; the noise, the joy, the chaos and the smiles, always anchored in something deeper. Keeping the image of the lighthouse close, we hope that in the years to come Stella Maris Summer Camp can continue to emulate what our very parish stands to represent; a harbour of refuge and a beacon of hope!

See you next summer!

Love,

Sam (Youth Minister)

SSVP - JULY SUMMARY

THE CANADIAN MISSIONS COLLECTION

The Canadian Missions Collection supports remote dioceses in NWT and in northern Alberta as well as Catholic Missions in Canada. CMIC fosters and extends blessings of the Catholic faith by supporting many missions in many regions of our country where the population is too small, or the economic situation of the community is too fragile for the people themselves to support their local Church and its ministry.

Envelopes are available at all the entrances/exits of the Church.
