

CONNECT

What is the best gift you have ever received—and why did it mean so much to you?

LEARN & APPLY

Read 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

- What words or phrases are repeated throughout this passage?
- How does Paul connect giving (and thanksgiving) with the principle of sowing and reaping? Do you think this connection is important? Why or why not?
- Where have you seen the principle of sowing and reaping play out in life—not just financially, but relationally or spiritually?
- What are some fears that keep people from “sowing generously?”
- Have you ever experienced joy through generosity? What made it meaningful?
- How does the Gospel reshape the way we think about generosity?

PRAY

Start by sharing your “thanksgiving” with one another. Then pray for a spirit of generous thanksgiving to fill our congregation. Conclude with the Lord’s Prayer.

CONNECT

What is the best gift you have ever received—and why did it mean so much to you?

LEARN & APPLY

Read 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

- What words or phrases are repeated throughout this passage?
- How does Paul connect giving (and thanksgiving) with the principle of sowing and reaping? Do you think this connection is important? Why or why not?
- Where have you seen the principle of sowing and reaping play out in life—not just financially, but relationally or spiritually?
- What are some fears that keep people from “sowing generously?”
- Have you ever experienced joy through generosity? What made it meaningful?
- How does the Gospel reshape the way we think about generosity?

PRAY

Start by sharing your “thanksgiving” with one another. Then pray for a spirit of generous thanksgiving to fill our congregation. Conclude with the Lord’s Prayer.

