Song

Come to Me

Opening Prayer

Deacon

Gracious and ever-moving God,
You call us to rise—to get up from what is settled,
from what is comfortable, from what holds us back.

Stir your Spirit among us today.
Loosen our fear, awaken our courage,
and open us to the flow of your presence.

In the name of the One who always journeys with us.
Amen.

Song

Way Maker

Scripture:

Matthew 9:18-26 (NRSVUE)

Today's reading is from the Gospel of Matthew chapter 9:

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from a flow of blood for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she was saying to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that moment. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, “Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread through all of that district.

May God bless this reading and our understanding. Amen

Prayers of the People & Lord's Prayer

Rev. Tina Walker-Morin

Our Father/Mother/Creator, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen
