Dawn Gabrielson

Turns out my husband's surgery will probably be put off because last Thursday, he fractured his ankle. He worked Saturday and Sunday in alot of pain but there was nobody to tell until today. They sent him to their doctor who took an xray and said it's fractured. This prolongs the not healing of his foot. Pray for healing and that this will bring him closer to Jesus

My husband's foot. He had surgery earlier this year but needs a new one. Medicaide and Medicare dropped him saying he is not disabled because he made too much money. He has an ankle that is huge with swelling. Don't think his doctor will do surgery unless this heals first. Not sure what to do next.
