Alexandra Riehl	Please pray for my fiancé's father Jeff Null. He lives in CA and is in the hospital fighting COVID pneumonia. The doctors have found a small clot in his lungs. We are reaching out to anyone we can, asking for your prayers. He is a fighter and has an amazing team of angels praying for him. We ask God for his miraculous, supernatural healing, that he removes this clot, and returns him home safe to his family. We thank you in advance for your prayers Sep 13, 2021 by Alexandra Riehl	Prayer Requests - General

Sandy Lubberden	Just wanted to let everyone know that Norm is at home now. Our insurance denied him rehab so we had to make a choice, nursing home with skilled care or come home with home care coming in to help. Norm, of course, wanted to come home. So he came home Wednesday and he is doing so much better. Still has a long way to go. Mentally it has been great. Home care nurse will be here today. Our kids have been great also. Please keep praying, your prayers I am sure is why we are where we are.. love you all. Thanks again Sep 10, 2021 by Sandy Lubberden	Prayer Requests - General
