Calvary's History

Calvary Baptist Church began as a mission of Allerton Baptist Church of Wichita in 1956. At the beginning they met in the Valley Center Library. Allerton Baptist Mission was organized into a New Testament Baptist Church in November of 1959. This marked the birth of our church. There were 36 charter members at that time. Rev. Pete Rose was called as the first Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church. Property was purchased for a permanent building in the 300 block of North West St. (now Sheridan Ave.) in 1960. The following year the first unit of a planned five-unit permanent building was completed. That building is where we now have our children's church space. Rev. Neal Alford was called as Pastor in 1964. It was in 1966 that the brick house, at the corner of Second and Sheridan Street, was purchased for use as a parsonage. Calvary was in need of more space as we grew and in 1968 a former one-room schoolhouse was purchased and moved onto the property to provide much needed Sunday School space.

In 1972 a bus ministry and children's church began with Randy Drake as bus captain and children's church minister. Rev. Harold Henderson was called as Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church (CBC) in 1974. On August 19th, 1979 ground was broken for the current 440 seat sanctuary. The new sanctuary was completed and dedicated on June 29, 1980. Around this time Rev. Henderson hired our legendary Church Secretary Sharon Sisler (still going strong in 2022 😊). In January 1985 Rev. Don Lacy assumed the Pastorate and his wife Kay took over leading the Bus Ministry. Rev. Lacy was a faithful Pastor and served tirelessly until his retirement in 2000. On April 16th, 1989 another groundbreaking ceremony was held, this time it was for the Family Life Center (kitchen/gym) and educational wing. The new facility was completed in 1990 just in time for 14 weddings to be held in 1991 (affectionately referred to as "the summer of weddings"). Pastor Rev. Michael Scott was called to become the Senior Pastor of CBC in 2001. In 2002 Calvary held its first production of Judgement House. This was a wonderful ministry for Calvary and since that time there have been a total of seven Judgement Houses held at CBC. Each of them drawing a minimum of 100 new brothers and sisters in Christ to the Kingdom of God. Pastor Michael saw many changes during his time at Calvary including remodeling the sanctuary (2007) and the office spaces. In November 2009 CBC celebrated 50 years of ministry in the Valley Center area. In 2019, the current Pastor Rev. Dr. Philip Carlson was called to become the Senior Pastor of CBC. His wife Rebecca started the AWANA program on Wednesday nights at the church in the Fall of 2020. During the pandemic of 2020 the children's Sunday School rooms, the nursery, and the children's church space were all remodeled.

Our youth ministry began to be a vital part of our church when Rev. Harold Henderson became our Pastor in 1974. Our first youth directors were Gary and Shirley Rundell. They served in that capacity until Carlton Cook was called to be part-time Music and Youth Pastor. Eventually we grew enough to have a full-time Youth Pastor. Joe Stiles was the first full-time Youth Pastor. He was followed in chronological order by Doug Harris, Jay Lewis, Doug Irvin, Bill Tucker, Matt Maestes, and Jason Ramsey. Our youth program was handled by a committee of parents, church members, and a deacon for a time. Until our current Associate Pastor for Students Robert Chapman was called in 2021. Over the years many trips to youth camps and mission trips have been taken by these Godly men. There have been trips as far away as Pensacola, Florida and nearby as to the former Heart of Kansas Southern Baptist Association Shiloh Campground. Bill Tucker was most notably known for his musical mission trips. They did backyard Bible studies and had performances at various vacation locations. Many of these performances and Bible studies were used to lead hundreds of adults and children to the Lord. May God richly bless Calvary as we continue to serve Him and look to Him faithfully.
