the Manifestation of the Gate of Messiah

“You have entered into the season of the Messiah’s mighty acts in your life; you will be the Messiah’s Gate.”

This year, a spirit will manifest very powerfully—the spirit of the Amalekites and their allies, the Midianites. Their purpose is to exalt humanity so that it may contend against everything that is God’s intended purpose on the earth. Nevertheless, God is going to reveal the Gate of the Messiah openly, raising up people who will ensure that every form of Satan’s agenda on the earth is completely erased.

In this way, 2026 will be the year of the Manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah. Messiah Himself is one distinct matter, and the operation of His Gate is another. He has no interaction whatsoever with any created being, yet you will be the Gate of the Messiah.

Then I looked, and I saw in the spirit a mighty army—an army moving in a remarkable manner. The army consisted of God’s servants in our generation who are mantle carriers of the fathers who have gone before them.

They were few; they did not exceed ten. They moved together like a cavalry force, with waves of blood moving before them, and waves of fire following behind them.

I watched with full attention, and fear came upon me as I contemplated what was unfolding in the lives of these servants of God. Then the Lord said, “This is the generation that is preparing the platform for the Manifestation of the Messiah on the earth in these times. This is a Gate that does not concern them personally, yet they are preparing the platform for the Manifestation of the Messiah on the earth.”

As I continued to observe how they advanced with power—being propelled by the waves of blood before them and waves of fire behind them—I saw with my own eyes the Messiah as He is described in the book of Revelation 19, holding a rod in His hand instead of a sword.

When I saw Him, my heart melted with fear, for I realized He had come to bring everything on the earth to account. It was then that the Lord began to speak to me about what this year holds.

Prophetic Utterances by Bishop Dr. Manasse DM

The Lord said, “These servants will provoke the heavens to open. The heavens will be opened so that the angels of the Lord may intervene to assist. The angels of the Lord—guardians and watchers—will aid all God’s chosen ones who are ready and willing. They will help them become mighty people on the earth; they will be mighty on the earth—a people who will utterly dismantle the works of the anti-Christ who is rising to contend against God. God’s servants will provoke the heavens to open for the mighty and willing.”

The Purpose and Acts of the Mighty:

- They will establish apostolic forts and mission stations. Strongholds with apostolic authority, through which the mighty will be released across the face of the earth, regardless of their gender or abilities. Whatever they accomplish, the heavens will accompany them.
- They will expose territorial strongholds. Just as it was in the days of Mordecai and Haman, the servants will be like the garment of Mordecai. Haman will have tormented the land for a long time, having dwelt in a place he did not deserve for an extended period. But these servants will come to reveal and expose everything that is Haman’s dominion. Every form of human strength resembling Haman’s will collapse.

This is happening this year, it begins today! This is happening this year, it begins today! “May you be among those whom the Lord is preparing.”

- The Lord is empowering them to guide even the weakest and lowliest in battle. Those who were once powerless will become mighty on the face of the earth. Let each one say, “Let me be one of them, let me be one of them, let me be one of them, let me be one of them, in the name of Jesus.”

The Manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah is not intended to take you to heaven or restore you to Jerusalem. Its purpose is prophetic revelation—to ensure that heavenly assistance reaches you where you are. Heavenly help will remove the schemes of the wicked. On the other hand, the prideful man will rise to sit in God’s Throne, ascending in great strength, wielding the pillars of influence:

- The pillar of religious spirits that mixes witchcraft within,
- The pillar of extreme poverty that causes people to sell their souls for a meal,
- The pillar of death messengers who devour lives through the power and coercion of foreign gods,
- The pillar of Leviathan, the twisting and winding serpent whose fortress is in the depths of the waters.

However, those who carry the anointing of the Messiah in their lives will dismantle these pillars. As the Messiah is revealed, they will be given economic solutions that will restore soundness of mind in people. Messiah Himself will manifest and defend His Throne everywhere under the heavens.

The angels of the Lord—guardians and watchers—will aid all God’s chosen ones who are ready and willing. They will help them become mighty people on the earth; they will be mighty on the earth—a people who will utterly dismantle the works of the anti-Christ who is rising to contend against God.

““ This is happening this year, it begins today! May you be among those whom the Lord is preparing. ””

Those Within God's Courts

There are people God calls the groups of David, Jonathan and Saul.

The Davids

- The Davids carry the anointing of the Manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah. These are people ready to pay the price, whose commitment before God surpasses human understanding. They are willing to give their lives so that others may be safe. Such people God will raise, and wherever He places them, no one can remove them.

If you are David,
you do not need to contend with anyone; follow
God's agenda.

The Jonathans

- The Jonathans are people of goodwill, people with whom God has an agenda. Yet they have limitations. They love David and are in covenant with him, but they hesitate to separate from Saul. Saul is their relative, wealthy, positioned in authority, religious, and outwardly strong enough to intimidate anyone.

David carries God's agenda and anointing, but he is still in the wilderness, and the Jonathans are not yet ready to follow him fully.

Because they fear following David, they continue to walk with Saul while loving David and helping him succeed. In the end, the Jonathans always lose. They may be present in gatherings, families and many other places, but they never ascend to their places of rule and power because they cannot choose. They attempt to follow both the one with God's anointing and the one with worldly advantage.

The Sauls

- The Sauls once had God, but God has now departed from them. The waves of God have moved to another level. Yet because of their past influence, people still follow them, holding onto ashes where there is no fire. The Sauls continue to lead, just as King Saul remained on the throne for thirty-eight years after God had rejected him. They may possess position, wealth, armies, sorcery and influence, but God does not acknowledge them.

If you are Saul, look carefully to
see where God
is in your life.
See where God
is!

If you are Jonathan, you do not need to sit on the fence; observe where God's agenda is and fully commit your heart to it. Commit with all your heart!

“This year, those who thirst to worship God will be drawn into deeper fellowship and communion in His presence than they have ever known before.”

Events Expected this Year

What, then, is expected this year?

- This is the year of the manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah and the season of the Messiah's mighty acts in your life. It will be the year of exposing Haman's schemes and establishing the justice of Mordecai. It will be the year of rest and refreshment through the presence of the Lord.
- It will be the year of freeing women from every form of bondage and captivity, releasing them as a mighty army sent by God. The Abigails will rise. The Deborahs will rise. The Yaels will rise. Even those once held as lawful captives expect that this year Yael will strike down Sisera, Deborah will overthrow Jabin's army, and Abigail will be delivered from Nabal's captivity.
- This year, the Lord will confront every form of fraudulent deception. Lies and falsehoods, no matter who speaks them or how credible the speaker may appear, whether in political, religious, generational, cultural, philosophical, or any other sphere, will be exposed and brought to clear judgment.
- This year, Mji wa Bwana, the Lord will, on this mountain, destroy the veil that covers people's understanding, as written in Isaiah 25:6-7. People will no longer be obscured. It will be the year in which the Lord reveals Himself anew. The Lord will reveal Himself again. He will say, "Here I am." Those who ask, "Lord, where are You?" will hear Him say, "Here I am." He will reveal Himself through His voice, through His actions, and through His manifestations. It will be the year in which the Lord manifests Himself anew under the heavens.
- It will be the year of raising up Mordecai and elevating a generation of people who are free from every form of compromise. No compromise. When others say, "Bow to Haman a little so that you may have peace," these will have already made a decision in their hearts: "I will bow to no foreign god except my own God." As God raises Mordecai, Haman will not stand. He will surely fall.
- This will be the year in which those who live by God's truth and hold firm convictions like Mordecai will witness the evident suffering of the Church, yet redemption will be near. Suddenly, Haman's counsel failed. Suddenly, Mordecai stood.
- This year, those who seek to oppress the Church, the body of Christ, will rise with great force. Trials will come from every direction. Among the most oppressive forces against the Church are religious traditions. From the early Church until today, religion has been the place where the Church has been confused, failing to understand its identity and failing to be a blessing even to itself. The trials will mark the beginning of a season of testing for the Church. Yet, like labour pains in a woman, they are not signs of destruction but signals of redemption. The Messiah will not allow His Church to suffer without intervention. He will manifest His power to redeem. He will manifest His power to redeem.
- This is the year in which those who carry the jealousy of the Lord will walk under the evident support of God's angels. This is the year in which builders will build swiftly because the grace that rested in Nehemiah is upon them. There will be no difficulty. If you plan to build anything in ministry or in family, build boldly, knowing that in just fifty-two days, Nehemiah built the wall surrounding all of Jerusalem and completed it. This was not building according to human rules, but building under prophetic guidance, as prophets stood with him and empowered the work by the Spirit to accomplish difficult things with ease. "Let this year be the Gate through which difficult things happen easily in your life."

- This year is the time of God's mighty works. Mighty and extraordinary works will take place on earth. These are the works of which God spoke when He said that those who know Him will be strong and perform mighty deeds. This is the year of God's mighty works.
- This is the year of the Manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah. The year in which the Lord says to His own, "Be still! Wait and see what I will do for you." In situations that appear to cause anxiety in others, you will experience rest, calm and answers from God that will bring glory to His name.
- This is the year in which those who thirst to worship God will be drawn into deeper fellowship and communion in His presence than they have ever known before. When the Messiah is present, nothing more is required of people except worship. Their sufficiency will come through intimacy with God.
- This is the year in which the children of the Kingdom will openly declare the goodness of God. Blessings will surround them so visibly that all who see them will say, "This one is blessed! This one is blessed! This one is blessed!"
- This is the year in which extraordinary waves of God will emanate from His Altar.

For I saw fire rising behind the servants of God. Shortly after, I saw my feet being drawn toward the blood flowing in waves, forming a path. I saw myself standing in the midst of them, and because they were moving like a great cavalry, I doubted whether I could stand amid such power. But when I stood in those waves, I realized that the power was not theirs. It was the power flowing from the Blood of Jesus. From that moment, I understood that the waves are seeking the heart of a ready and willing person—to draw them in. These are waves moving with an extraordinary power, sent by the Lord for His own. "Enter into these waves, in the name of Jesus. Enter into these waves, in the name of Jesus!"

- This is the year in which God will grant you depth in revelations to know Him uniquely and intimately. You will know God, His essence and His ways, in a personal and unparalleled manner. It will be the year that releases the fire of purification. This fire will reach and shake the Church everywhere on earth. Every form of chaff will burn, and every part of God's agenda will take its rightful place. It will be the year of sudden and swift answers to the prayers of His people.
- It will be the year that produces abundant and profitable fruit. Every burden that has weighed heavily upon you will be lifted and will no longer rest on you. This is the work of the Messiah. It will be the year in which God releases greater grace to enable you to obey and serve Him fully.
- This is the year in which God will connect you to a network of people who are commanded to obey. Their obedience is not a matter of persuasion or request. It is obedience issued by the voice of God. They do not need advice in order to obey, nor do they need to be begged. Their obedience is a command, like David's obedience to God.
- This year, abundance will be released to faithful stewards. God will release treasures because you have been a faithful steward. God will release abundance in your life, and you will steward well.

“This year, God will grant you depth in revelations to know Him uniquely and intimately.”

- This is the year in which God will equip the Church with prophetic arrows, like the arrow of the king of Israel held by Elisha in 2 Kings 13:14–20. These are prophetic arrows whose sound the nations will hear, and the strongholds of evil will crumble. “Let them be released upon you, Mji wa Bwana. Let them be released upon you, Mji wa Bwana! Let the prophetic arrows that bring solutions for the nation be released upon you.”
- This is the year in which truth must prevail. Love the truth. Love it more than fear of anything else. This is the year in which the Lord will release continuous transformation, unfolding in your life through His presence. Humility and a contrite heart will attract the presence of God, and the angels of the Lord will attend your life. Even before you speak a word, your humility and contrite heart will provoke divine assistance.
- This is the year in which God will give many their long-awaited good news. Good news! For the manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah is itself the announcement of God’s sudden agenda, and sudden acts will reveal the Messiah in your life.
- This year, God will judge every Haman in your life, for the Messiah will not share His throne with Haman.
- Finally, this is the year of battles of words. The Lord will sharpen your tongue like a sword. Others will have words, but your words will be a sword. They may have words, but your words will be a sword. Use your mouth wisely. Use your mouth wisely! A sword is not wielded everywhere. It accomplishes its work in the proper place. When God makes your mouth a sword, know when to sheath it.

“This year, God will give many their long-awaited good news. For the manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah is itself the announcement of God’s sudden agenda.”

ENCC

Open your eyes and see. Set your heart to seek wisdom. For I will remove all your weaknesses and heal your wounds. I stand with My rod of authority for you. If you are ready, if you are willing, if you accept and obey, I will strengthen you and remove your weaknesses.

And again I saw the Messiah holding a rod, and He called it the Rod of His Authority. He does not hold the rod of dominion for Himself in heaven. This is the rod by which He said, “Rule over those who hate you until I return.”

This rod is released over you so that the weaknesses within you may be removed. Its key is this: set your heart to seek wisdom and a heart of understanding.

Mji wa Bwana

You are like that small city of Bethlehem. The Lord says, "Your star has appeared to distant nations. Because of this, the nations have released their treasures to serve you.

He who guards you will defend every purpose He has placed within you." He has appointed the times for the completion of all your matters, so that you may become a place of refuge for many. He says,

"I have given you favour and authority so that you may reveal My power and My glory among the nations and throughout the years. Reveal My power and My glory among the nations and throughout the years. I have rebuked weakness.

I have rebuked every condition of heaviness to depart from among you. Depart from among you. For all who believe that I have raised them up for great things on the earth, greatness will come into their lives without difficulty. Without difficulty. Without difficulty."

Here, the Lord spoke warnings through a symbolic vision. He said

"Be on alert. Those who miss the light of the star of Bethlehem will miss their kairos gates, and this may bring tears and loss. The star appeared to distant nations, yet the people of Bethlehem had no knowledge of the star or of what had taken place.

Those who came from afar worshiped, and Jesus was removed from Bethlehem. Meanwhile, the children who remained in Bethlehem, under two years of age, were killed because the Messiah had come to them. The Messiah Himself was not killed, but they suffered loss."

"This Gate of the Messiah that rests upon you, Mji wa Bwana, your star has been visible from afar. Stand watchfully at the gates, so that those whom God has entrusted to you for deliverance may not perish or be lost because of neglect."

“This is the year in which truth must prevail. Love the truth. Love it more than fear of anything else.”

Tanzania

Tanzania, your problem is Africa's problem. Tanzania, your problem is Africa's problem! Your land is wounded. Your land is devastated, and the foundations of your throne have been defiled with blood. The foundations of your throne have been defiled with blood!

Can you not hear the voice of the blood? Can you not hear the cry of the avenger of blood? Because your throne has been defiled with blood, I call Tanzania to bow in true repentance. A repentance that transforms hearts, not repentance of empty words.

A repentance of people who acknowledge their guilt before God, not a repentance that settles for self-reflection before men.

For before the foundations of justice can be restored, the Gate of the Messiah must overthrow the foundations of injustice and the foundations of wickedness, so that the foundations of justice may stand again. Did you not know that the name Messiah means He who rules in righteousness? It means that the righteousness of God has been revealed in man.

This is not the time to point fingers at others. No one can deny that we are wounded. This is not the time to say, "It is because of you," or "It is because of them." Fault-finding will not heal the land. This is the time for God-fearing servants to kneel at the altar and bring the nation before God. It is the time for the people to say to God, "The gift of life You gave us, we have treated lightly."

In this way, 2026 will be the year of the Manifestation of the Gate of the Messiah. Messiah Himself is one distinct matter, and the operation of His Gate is another. He has no interaction whatsoever with any created being, yet you will be the Gate of the Messiah.
