Window of the Breath of GOD

The Lord has declared 2025

as the Year of the Window of the Breath of God.

In this Window of the Breath of God, there is hidden grace. Grace that has been concealed for many generations and hidden from the preceding one. "From among the tribes and peoples, they will witness My breath—the breath signifying the season of the opening of the Window of My Breath," says the Lord.

This is the same window opened during Noah's ark, ushering in new life for the generations of humankind. It is the same window opened during the time of Rahab, the harlot of Jericho, that preserved and saved her entire family. This is the window opened in Daniel's time when he prayed facing Jerusalem, and all the disputes and schemes of the cunning in the nation of Babylon were silenced.

It is the same window that did not allow the death of Eutychus, the young man who fell from the third floor while listening intently to the Altar's proclamation under Paul the apostle's anointing. Though he fell from the window and died, death could not hold him because Paul embraced him, and his life was restored.

Prophetic Utterances by Bishop Dr. Manasse DM

Why the Window of the Breath of the Lord?

This is a revelation of grace—grace in its fullness, manifesting in a fivefold measure. Though storms will arise and challenges will come, this grace will sustain you, carrying you through as though you had not passed through any trial. This is the grace unknown to your forefathers, withheld because of their disobedience and idolatry in serving other gods. But now, the Lord declares: "I have received your sincere repentance and heard the prayers of your contrite heart. Now, I declare, a window that has always remained shut is now open. It is the Window of the Breath of God."

"Incline your ear, open your eyes, and behold: 'It is My breath that brings light in darkness, revelation amidst confusion, life in weakness, and open treasures of desirable things hidden from the eyes of many.' This is the Window of the Breath of God."

This is a measure.

“ Though storms will arise and challenges will come, tmy grace will sustain you, and carrying you through as though you had not passed through any trial. ”
says the Lord

The Lord declares: "Be careful and diligently keep the law of heaven. For I come in this season to shake foundations and thrones—the foundations of human kingdoms. Treasuries will be shaken. Systems will tremble. And behold, even networks of power will be shaken."

The kingdoms of man will be shaken so the throne of God in His Holy Place may be aligned with the systems of man.

The Lord declares, "I desire to connect My throne to their thrones so I may bless them. Through the Window of the Breath of God, I will breathe wisdom upon their work and businesses. The Window of the Breath of God will fulfill My prophetic promises in marriages, offsprings, and desireable treasures."

"Did I not instruct you on how to open it? Did I not give you the keys to unlock it? Now, I have come—I HAVE COME—to open it Myself. For this is the time and season for My Name to be glorified in man's generations through the fulfillment of My promises. "I have released guardian angels and watchers among you. They will open every locked gate, for the Window of the Breath of God is releasing a new level of goodness that has been delayed." Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

“Did I not instruct you on how to open it? Did I not give you the keys to unlock it? Now, I have come—I HAVE COME—to open it Myself.”

It is through this Window that solutions will come to My people. Just as I brought deliverance to Samaria through four lepers, I will bring rest to you. Those who stand against this window—just as the Syrians stood against Samaria—will hear a sound that drives them to retreat."

"This is a window of grace I give you. This window is a tool, and My Spirit is the breath. My Spirit is not the tool, but through the Spirit, I perform good works with the breath of My mouth.

Through this breath, I give you:

- Blessings beyond your deserving.
- Speed beyond your natural ability.
- Goodness beyond your expectations.

You do not need to worry about how this will come to pass. It is the Window of the Breath of God. Let the one with understanding receive it, and the one with a contrite heart accept it."

This is how the Window of the Breath of God is opened to you again. Through it, every matter concerning your life, family, children, work, and destiny is assured of safety.

Hallelujah!
Hallelujah
Hallelujah!

“Through the Window of the Breath of God, I will breathe wisdom upon their work and businesses.”

The Spirit of God has made me,
and the
Breath
of the Almighty gives me life

- Job 33:4
(NKJV)

Because of the overwhelming flood of grace released in this season, the Lord declares: "Do not seek faults, do not assign guilt, and do not pursue vain paths, for I will judge swiftly and without delay."

This grace has been multiplied for those who fear the Lord, to deliver them from deception and the snares of the enemy.

There will be an escape from the looming yoke of death. Just as it was with Eutychus, situations designed to take your life will arise, but because you have entered the year of fivefold grace, the Window of God's Breath has been opened for you. You will escape and emerge safely.

In this season, prosperity and great success will come quickly, beyond what your efforts or strategies could achieve. God will bless your work with His grace. Minimal effort will produce abundant fruit so extraordinary that it will leave others questioning how you succeed, for the results will defy human expectations.

Be diligent in maintaining faithfulness in every matter of trust.

Remain faithful to:

- Your God
- The Church
- Those in authority
- All people under heaven

The Lord declares: "I will not endorse anything lacking integrity. Guard every matter that pertains to trust."

This year, discern and avoid false friends. Discern and steer clear of any unfriendly friends. As the Window of Grace opens, it will grant you clarity to uncover hidden treasures and introduce you to gates that will restore what was lost.

The grace released through this window will identify you in places where there will be:

- No rebuke
- No fear
- No contention

over your blessings.

The Lord declares: "I give you the Window of Grace this year. I grant you the grace to enjoy the good fruits of the land. Wherever your feet tread, I have given you the land's best fruits. No gate will stand against you or oppose you. Even if they rise, they will fall for your sake. If they gather, they will be scattered for your sake."

For Individuals

“ Do not seek faults, do not assign guilt, and do not pursue vain paths, for I will judge swiftly and without delay. ”

But there is a spirit in man,
and the
Breath
of the Almighty gives him understanding

- Job 32:8
(NKJV)

For Mji wa Bwana

“Within you are the wise, and among you, people of understanding have been found. People with the spirit of understanding have been found. These are people who have sought Me wholeheartedly—with patience and self-sacrifice grounded in truth. When I said I was searching for someone among you—someone who walks with a humble heart, someone intelligent and filled with the spirit of understanding, someone who walks in humility so that I might heal the city for their sake—I found such people. This year, I will fulfill this promise for the sake of your people, Mji wa Bwana.

I will release the inspiration of My breath upon you, Mji wa Bwana. You will stand and rise like the valley of dry bones brought to life, like a mighty army destined to redeem and deliver nations.

This year, I will go before you:

- I will remove every stumbling stone
- I will grant you swift progress
- And every Kingdom purpose will be fulfilled.

Behold, I am setting helpers and preparing support for you, enabling you to move swiftly and confirm the rising of your light over the nation and the nations. Do not fear any reports of the enemy's schemes to hinder or slow your pace, for none of these schemes will succeed.

The sounds of rejoicing will be heard again, and those who seek the Lord will be a lasting comfort in the dwelling places of Mji wa Bwana. Their storehouses will not run dry, for grace will abound in their lives.”

For ENCC

At first, you only heard of what I could do. But now, you have seen it with your own eyes. At first, you did not know, but now it is evident. You now fully understand: “You are not man's idea; you are the fruit of the Spirit's womb that birthed you. You are not man's planting; you are a seed planted and cherished by your God.”

Be cautious of spiritually deaf people, cautious of spiritually mute people, and cautious of spiritually blind people.

These are those who:

- Have eyes but do not see
- Have ears but do not hear

They are not far from you; they are among you, in your midst. When they hear rejoicing, they do not shout for joy. When they hear mourning, they do not mourn. They are like the mute, like the deaf, and like the blind—unaffected by anything. Be vigilant and cautious of them, for they are among you.

Behold, I place a sickle in your hand. This sickle is not a weapon of war but a tool for harvesting, for the nations are ready for harvest for your sake. Bring them into the storehouse for My glory. I give you the grace to preserve the waves of My glory. You will not lose this grace nor miss the waves of My glory.

“You are not man's idea; you are the fruit of the Spirit's womb that birthed you. You are not man's planting; you are a seed planted and cherished by your God.”

For Tanzania

Fear has gripped you—the fear of the year called “the election year.” But the Lord speaks these words over you:

- Let the one with a field take up the plow and return to cultivate it.
- Let the one in school go to the classroom and study.
- Let the one with an office go to work.
- Let the one with a business increase its capital and sign new contracts.

For the peace I give you is a gift—not the effort of man. It is a gift, not the effort of man.”

“Tanzania, I will lift you up once again and restore the honour by which you were known among all nations. I am restoring the voice of justice and redemption that marked you—the voice given to you for the redemption of southern African nations. You were never meant to lose this voice. When I restore it, it will be so that you may stand as a beacon for full redemption—of your nation and others—spiritually, economically, and in knowledge. Your outcomes will once again be pleasing to My heart.

As for the fear that grips you, and the turmoil stirred by conspirators, they have been swallowed up in their own schemes. There will be no turmoil.”

For Africa

Africa, the voice of deliverance has been heard. The trumpet of healing, sounding from the Window of the Breath of God, has been blown.

“There is a trumpet sounding in the spiritual realm. In this manner, the sound of the trumpet should be made at the southern gate, so Africa may receive God’s healing once again.”

For the Nations

The Lord declares: “The East will rise again against the West.” This rise is not driven by the East’s agenda against the West’s agenda, but because of Israel. However, the hour of travail and mourning for Israel has not yet come.

It has not yet come! It has not yet come!

Thus, every rise of the East will fall silent as swiftly as it arose—until the appointed hour of Israel’s travail. In that hour, Gog of Magog will rise. And the rising of Gog of Magog will awaken the One who is the Prince of Peace, who will come to reign once again under the heavens.”

*This what the Lord says concerning each individual,
Mji wa Bwana, ENCC, Tanzania, Africa, and the nations.
May the Lord bless you abundantly.
