Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints...

Ephesians 6:14-18

This week we are going to talk about something we normally like to hide: our feet. How do I know this? I've have tried to do foot washing in every church I've been a part of (as pastor). For most people, there is less resistance to change...from music to even the color of the sanctuary carpet...than washing feet!

A Nike commercial declared, "It's gotta be the shoes!" In ancient times, they wore flat sandals to walk hundreds of miles. Today, along with the scientifically designed training for athletes, they also have shoes that the writers of the Bible could hardly have fathomed! Could you imagine how nice it would have been walking from one city to another in HOKA athletic shoes? The comfort level would be amazing compared to ancient sandals. The shoe matters!

Whether you don't like the way your feet look, or they've just been beat up over the years, Isaiah flips this contemporary concept on feet. "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns. (Isaiah 52:7)" When someone looks up and sees a person who brings the gospel of peace, their feet are so amazingly beautiful!

Paul plays on this by encouraging believers to prepare themselves and "...put on the gospel of peace [on your feet]. Here, there is a sense of being ready to share the gospel of peace with anyone/anywhere. "Go! Make disciples!"

Peter talked about being ready to share the gospel as well: "...always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect..." God places people in our lives who need to hear about the gospel of peace. Pray for God to ready your feet with the gospel of peace!

AUGUST BIRTHDAYS

It's a joy to have reasons to celebrate and we'd like to add a new "twist". Instead of just celebrating the person we hope everyone will use this list as a reminder to pray for others in the church.
