I. Trust the God who was there before your chaos ever was (v.1:1)

- He precedes your chaos

- He precedes your chaos
- He needs nothing from you to work

בָּרָא

(bārā') - to create

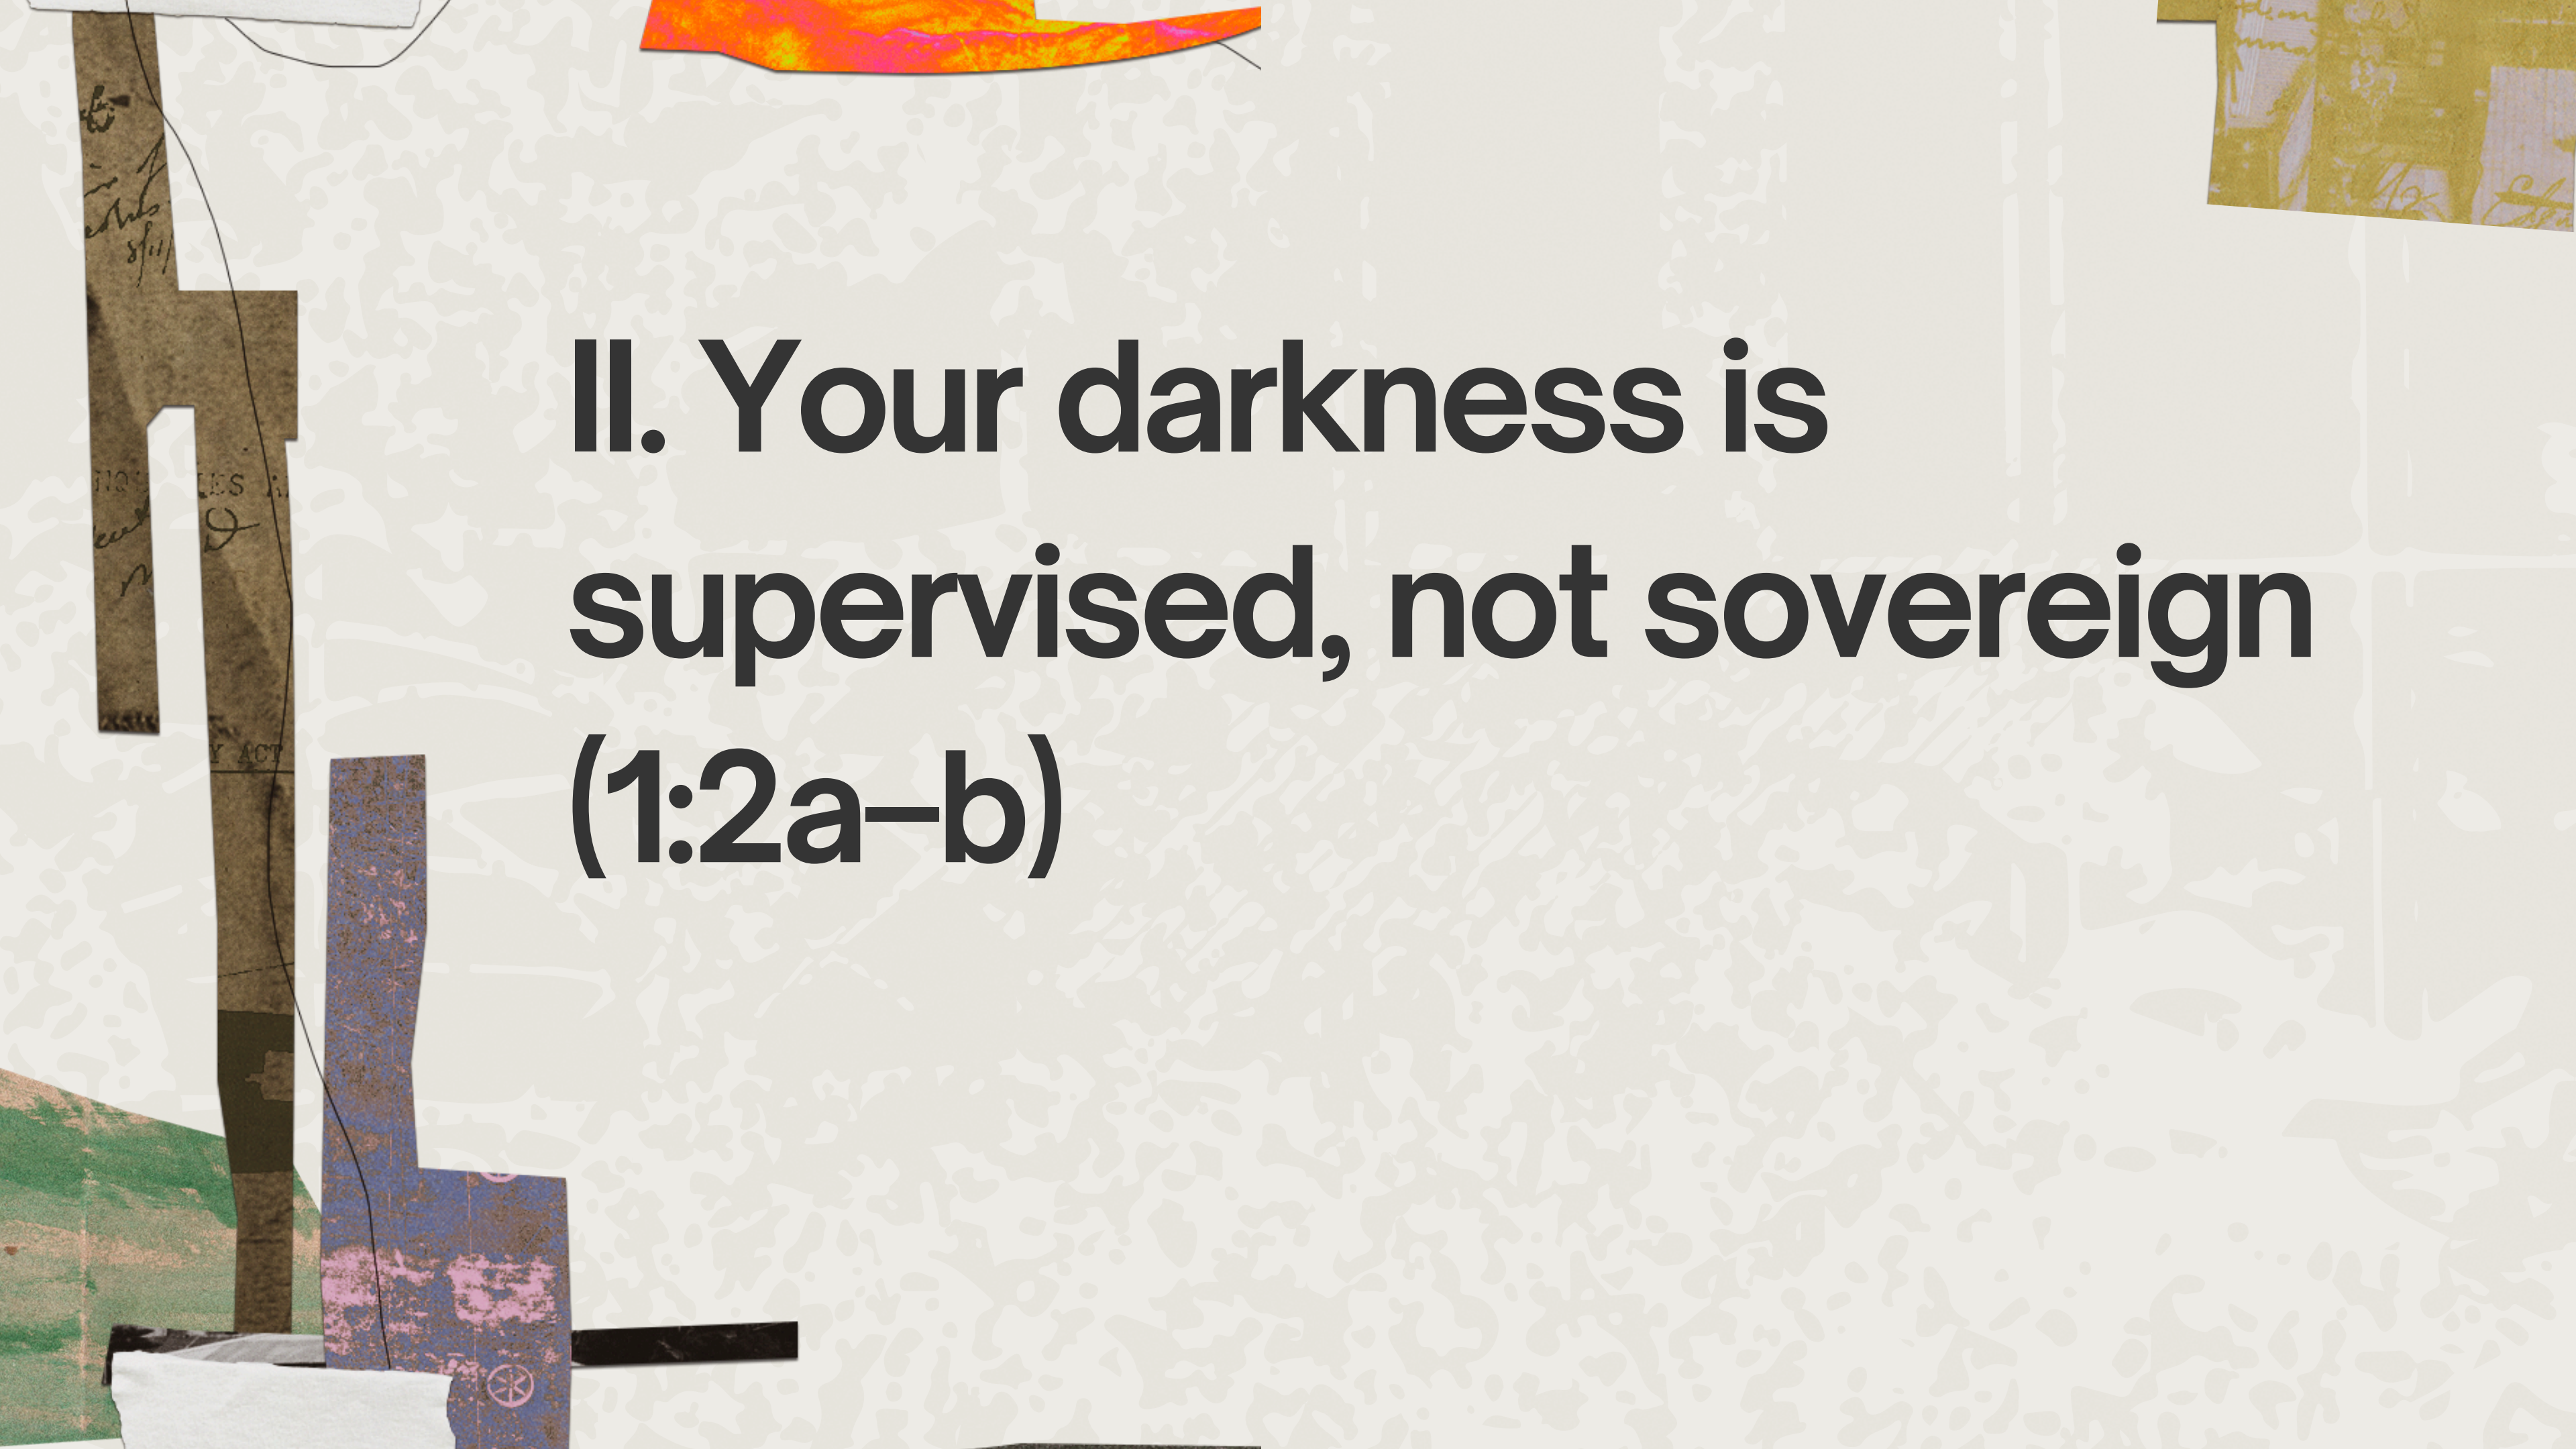

- He precedes your chaos
- He needs nothing from you to work

- He precedes your chaos
- He needs nothing from you to work
- He owns all of it

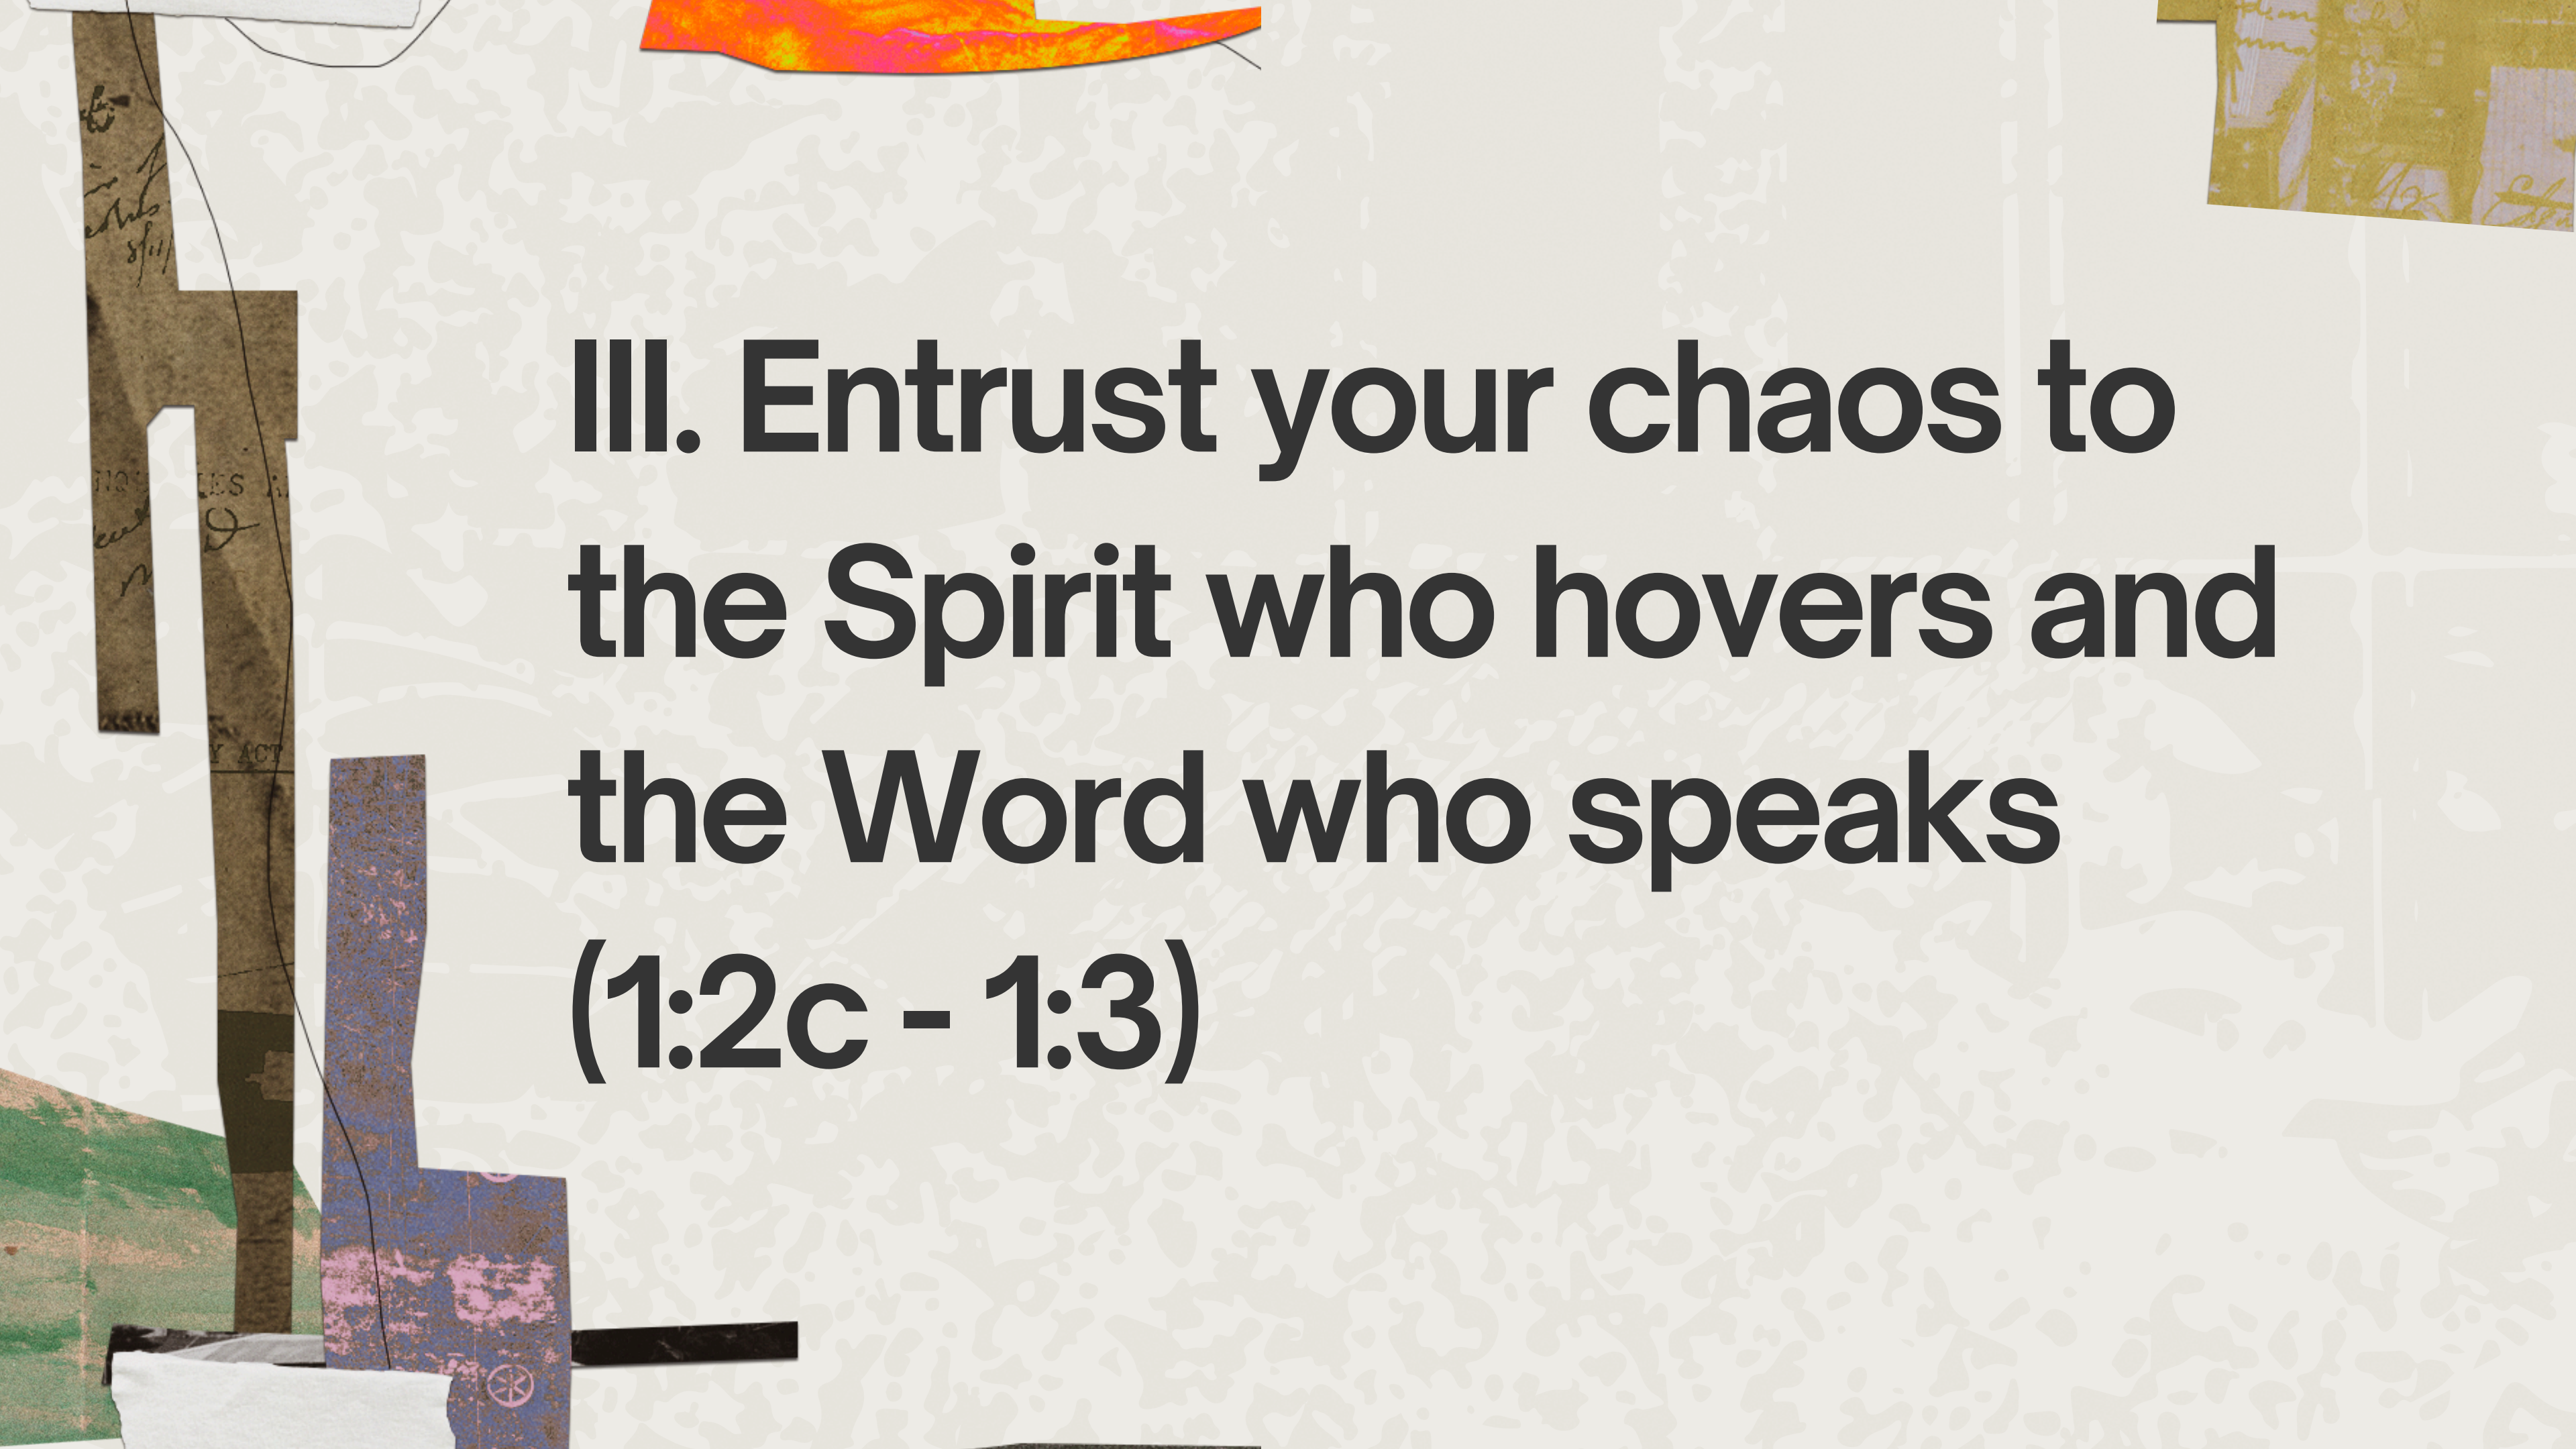

II. Your darkness is supervised, not sovereign (1:2a–b)

- The formless is a canvas, not a catastrophe

- The formless is a canvas, not a catastrophe
- The deep has no throne

III. Entrust your chaos to the Spirit who hovers and the Word who speaks (1:2c - 1:3)

- The Spirit broods over the
unformed

מַרְחֶפֶת

(mərāḥēp̄et) - hovering

רוח אלהים

(rûah 'ělōhîm) - “Spirit of God”

- The Spirit broods over the
unformed

- The Spirit broods over the unformed
- Entrusting means renouncing and waiting

If he spoke light into your dead heart, your remaining darkness is not beyond him
