DEACON ORDINATION COVENANT

PASTOR: We have gathered together today to set aside Adam Dailey to serve our Lord and this church by ordaining him as deacon.

PEOPLE: We rejoice in what God is doing in our church and in the life of Adam as we call him to serve as deacon.

PASTOR: Serving as a deacon is more than just an honor. Those ordained must be individuals with a good reputation in the church and community; individuals who live by the power of God's Holy Spirit; individuals who apply the wisdom of God's Word to daily life; and individuals who are responsible and faithful to fulfill their calling as they live out the biblical qualifications of a deacon.

PEOPLE: We believe Adam possesses these qualities and is qualified to serve this church as deacon.

PASTOR: Adam, your church family and fellow deacons have expressed their confidence in your ability to serve this church as a deacon. Do you promise to love the Lord your God wholeheartedly, to love your neighbor unselfishly, to love your family completely, and to serve the Lord and this church faithfully?

DEACON CANDIDATE: I do promise to love the Lord our God wholeheartedly, to love my neighbor unselfishly, to love my family completely, and to serve the Lord and this church faithfully.

PASTOR: Deacons, do you pledge your support and encouragement to nurture Adam as he is set aside for service today? Will you renew your commitment before this congregation to be students of God's Word, to be positive examples as leaders by ministering compassionately to our church families; by faithfully attending services and financially supporting the work of the church; and to serve the Lord through this church?

DEACONS: We pledge our support and encouragement to nurture Adam as he is set aside for service today. We welcome him as our brother in Christ and partner in ministry. We renew our commitment to be students of God's Word; to minister faithfully to our church families; to be positive examples in attendance and financial support of the church; and to serve our Lord through this church.

PASTOR: Will you as a church support Adam through your prayers and faithfulness to the Lord and His church?

PEOPLE: We pledge our support of Adam as he has been set aside to serve this church. We commit ourselves to pray for him and work with him to advance the kingdom of God in our church, community, and world.

PASTOR: Therefore, in view of the covenant entered into this day, I challenge each of us to present ourselves to the Lord as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God. Let us join our hearts and hands to work together in harmony for the purpose of advancing the kingdom of God in our church, community and world.
