*God Moments: A meaningful church-wide project that invites our congregation to come together through the power of storytelling—and we need you to help make it happen! Each of us has experienced moments where God's presence, guidance, or faithfulness was especially clear. These stories—whether quiet and personal or bold and life-changing—are worth sharing. Our goal is to gather enough submissions to create a special collection that reflects the depth and diversity of faith within our church family. Printed prompts are available, or you may submit your story digitally to the church office. Submissions should be 500–1,000 words. Let's come together, share our stories, and celebrate all the ways God is at work among us.

How to Remember: Forgotten Pathways to an Authentic Faith

by Andrew Osenga

Andrew Osenga's How to Remember was a refreshing surprise. Rather than a dry study of ancient traditions, it offers a thoughtful look at how Christians can draw from the rich history of the church while remaining rooted in their own traditions. Writing from his experience growing up in an independent Baptist church, Osenga introduces practices that can deepen faith without requiring believers to abandon their roots. His approach is gracious and practical, making this a worthwhile read for anyone looking to add new tools to their spiritual toolbox.
