LESSON #32

THE HIGH PRIESTLY PRAYER

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURE

JOHN 17:1-26

THE LESSON AT A GLANCE

In preparation for today's lesson, read and reflect on the passage just before it—John 16:16-33.

As Jesus talked about His upcoming death, the disciples were understandably confused. He assured them, however, that the sorrow they would experience in His death would be overshadowed by the joy of His resurrection.

Jesus is victorious over sin, death, and the grave. Through Him, we can ask for what we need, and trust God to provide. While suffering and sorrow will be part of our human experience, we can trust that Jesus was, is, and will be victorious. This world will have trouble, but we have hope—Christ has conquered the world!

THE MAIN IDEA

Jesus prayed for Himself, His disciples, and future believers, revealing His desire for unity with the Father and unity among His people.

QUESTIONS TO EXPLORE

How might your prayer life look different if you spent the next week modeling your prayers after the pattern of Christ in this passage?
