APPLY

Re-read John 14:6-7. Where do you need to realign your life with Jesus as the way to the Father?

READING PLAN

- Monday- John 13:1-11
- Tuesday- John 13:12-20
- Wednesday- John 13:21-38
- Thursday- John 14:1-7
- Friday- John 14:8-14

As you re-read 13:34-35, consider what thing you are at risk of prizing more than growing love for the Father. Now read 14:6-7, reflecting on how Jesus is the antidote our heart needs to live in the Father's design for our lives.

LESSON #30

JESUS'S TEACHINGS AT THE LAST SUPPER, PART 2

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURE

JOHN 14:15-30; 15:26-16:1-15

THE LESSON AT A GLANCE

You'll notice in today's lesson that we skip a substantial portion of text. We'll circle back and explore John 15:1-25 next week and examine one of Jesus's essential teachings about abiding in Him. We'll also find the seventh, and final "I am" statement.

Today, we're examining Jesus's teaching on the Holy Spirit, and how He dwells in the hearts of believers. In John 16:7, Jesus told the disciples it was better for Him to leave so that the Spirit could come. His words likely confused the disciples, who couldn't imagine anything better than Jesus's real, physical presence.

The Holy Spirit abides in every believer all the time, helping, sustaining, and growing us to be more like Jesus. Discuss ways in which the Spirit moves and speaks in your lives.

THE MAIN IDEA

Jesus promised the Holy Spirit to guide, comfort, and advocate for believers, calling them to respond with loving obedience.

QUESTIONS TO EXPLORE

How does the Holy Spirit help us to live in loving obedience to God?
