

Getting Married at The Chapel

Your Decision to Marry Is a Commitment

We're excited to have the opportunity to invest in this commitment and your upcoming marriage. If you would like to be married at The Chapel or desire a Chapel minister to officiate your wedding ceremony, you must complete our premarital counseling program.

Our premarital counseling is offered to members and non-members of The Chapel. The premarital process is about building a solid relational foundation. Our program is designed to help you discover how to build a Christ-centered marriage that will last a lifetime.

To begin the process, please complete the Wedding Information Form, and the Relationship questionnaire. Then please contact us to schedule a premarital interview.

What happens at the premarital interview?

The bride and groom will meet with a member of the pastoral staff to discuss wedding plans and details of the questionnaire. An overview of the counseling program is discussed. The couple will receive information on the premarital assessment they will take. This assessment is used in the premarital counseling with the couple. Your premarital interview must be scheduled at least six months prior to your wedding date.

Your premarital counseling will be led by a combination of Chapel Staff members
